Service Letter for Ms. P.M. Thathsarani

This is to certify that Ms. P.M. Thathsarani, was employed at the Department of Fisheries and Aquatic Resources, Sri Lanka, as a Software Engineer Trainee from January 2024 to December 2024.

Roles and Responsibilities

During her tenure, Ms. Thathsarani contributed significantly to the department's technological advancements through the following roles and responsibilities:

1. Developed the Overtime Management System, the first of its kind implemented in a government organization in Sri Lanka, which is now successfully utilized across 15 fisheries districts.
2. Designed user interfaces for the Special Licenses module of the MSDFAR system, enhancing user experience and system efficiency.
3. Contributed to the design and development of the department's main website, ensuring a user-friendly and informative platform.
4. Conducted research and collaborated in the development of a mobile application for calculating billfish measurements, streamlining data collection and analysis to support sustainable fishing practices and improve stock assessments.

Performance and Conduct

Ms. Thathsarani demonstrated exceptional technical skills, a keen aptitude for learning, and a collaborative approach. Her work ethic, problem-solving abilities, and dedication to innovation were highly commendable.

We appreciate her contributions to the organization and wish her continued success in her future endeavors. If further information is required, please feel free to contact us at 0773703885 or via email at nuwan.dfar@gmail.com.
